

Vice-Rectory of Research, Innovation and Outreach

Mission

Unit which contributes significantly to the creation, transformation, transfer, contextualization, implementation, management, innovation and knowledge sharing in all its forms and expressions, giving priority to sustainable development in the Colombian Coffee Region. The Institutional mission of the University allows it to offer services from his academic work, to public or private sector through agreements or contracts for technical, scientific, artistic, consulting or otherwise, related to its mission objectives.

Vision

By the year 2019 be a Vice Rectory of high quality, leader in the region and the country for its overall competitiveness in research, innovation and extension to the scientific, technological, environmental and cultural development, with social impact and immersed in the international community.

Fuente:

<http://www2.utp.edu.co/english/institutional/39/vice-rectory-of-research-innovation-and-outreach>

Universidad Tecnológica
de Pereira